There's no need to ruff it without your furry friend. At Staypineapple they love ALL dogs! And especially love it when you choose to Staypineapple with your favorite companion!

Staypineapple knows a trip is better when the whole family takes part in the fun. That's why they've created a hotel stay that ensures your pup is as comfortable as possible. They also understand that even though you brought Fido along, you can't take him everywhere. So they created special door hangers for just such an occasion. "Staypineapple is committed to the well-being of all animals. We prioritize making our hotels 100 percent dog-friendly," said Michelle Barnet, president, and CEO of Staypineapple.

Staypineapple wants you to know that it's okay to leave your fur baby in the room while you go exploring. Just use the appropriate door hanger on your way out. If you and Fido go exploring together please hang the “My Dog Is Out Exploring (please clean my room)” sign on the door. They’ll be right in to tidy up.

If you go exploring without your best friend please place the “My Owner Is Out Exploring (please go away)” sign on the door. This informs Housekeeping to not disturb Fido’s nap. Upon your return use the Everything Button to contact the Front Desk to arrange service during typical housekeeping hours.

While you are out exploring Fido can take advantage of the pup perks every Staypineapple dog guest receives
