STAYPINEAPPLE HOTELS INC. ANNOUNCES ÁNGEL REDONDO TENA AS VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Staypineapple Hotels Inc. prepares for expansion into licensing and third-party property management with the appointment of a new VP of Business Development.

BELLEVUE, Wash., Feb. 28, 2023 – Staypineapple Hotels Inc., a Pacific Northwest based third-party licensing and property management company – most notably recognized for its management of all 10 Staypineapple hotels across the United States – announces the addition of Ángel Redondo Tena to the organization’s Business Development team.

“Staypineapple Hotels. Inc. is poised for expansion, and with Ángel’s knowledge and industry experience, we are ready to make waves in the hospitality market this year and beyond,” says Todd Boysen, Staypineapple Hotels Inc. President & CEO. “Ángel’s track record of growing boutique hotel brands through property acquisition efforts will be instrumental to the Staypineapple Hotels Inc. organization as we look to bring the Staypineapple hotel brand to our fellow hoteliers as a new and groundbreaking hotel flag option.”

Ángel brings over 20 years of experience sourcing, underwriting, negotiating and creating hotel concepts globally, boasting involvement in over $3 billion worth of real estate transactions globally. Most recently, Ángel held the position of Vice President of Real Estate for Jurny Hospitality, where he negotiated and closed over 30 management agreements, tripling the Jurny Hospitality portfolio over his three year tenure. Prior to his time with Jurny Hospitality, Ángel spent two years as the Director of Acquisitions & Business Development for Oakwood Worldwide, successfully negotiating 15 new management agreements for the organization.

This announcement comes less than one month before the Hunter Hotel Investment Conference, where Ángel will make his first official appearance on behalf of Staypineapple Hotels Inc.
