

STAYPINEAPPLE ANNOUNCES SALES MANAGEMENT PROMOTION

JoAnn Ramsby, Regional Sales Manager

SEATTLE – (December 5, 2017)– Staypineapple, a hospitality company based in the Pacific Northwest, announced the promotion of JoAnn Ramsby to be the new regional sales manager effective Sunday, October 1, 2017.

“I’m honored for this opportunity to join the Staypineapple management team,” said Ramsby. “We have such a unique collection of hotel properties and offer an authentic edge to the luxury travel experience, so I look forward to doing my part in continuing to help grow our brand.”

As regional sales manager, Ramsby oversees the selling efforts, responsibilities and representation for all Staypineapple hotels with ownership focus on Hotel Z San Diego and The Alise San Francisco. With over 12 years of working in the Seattle hospitality industry, including holding positions at Marriott, Hilton, Wyndham and other independent brands, Ramsby joined Staypineapple as a sales coordinator in May 2017.

Prior to joining Staypineapple, Ramsby worked her way up in the hospitality industry starting in a front desk position at Marriot to earning an opportunity in the sales office after six months. She has worked for extended-stay properties, limited service and lifestyle brands in roles as sales manager, senior sales manager and director of sales, where Ramsby assisted in overseeing operational aspects in the food services department and hiring for sales and front office departments. Throughout her career, Ramsby has received several awards, including Sales Team of the Year, Sealing the Deal- Growing Existing Accounts award, Going Above and Beyond- Business Planning award and the LEAP award for production and prospecting.

Ramsby has immense experience in a variety of industries including spending many years managing, training and selling horses for a private polo operation while also teaching equestrian and horsemanship to students. Her eclectic background ranges from working for two different districts in primary grade special education, to working in and around the construction, retail and restaurant industries.

Aside from work, Ramsby is currently receiving a yoga teaching certification and volunteers around the community. She enjoys spending time with her daughter Shaunte', a graduate from the University of Washington who completed her graduate studies at Johns Hopkins University.
