BELLEVUE, Wash., Feb. 1, 2023 – Throughout the month of February, Staypineapple is celebrating Valentine’s Day by waiving all pet fees with its annual Pineapple Pup Plus One offer. Travelers can also show the furriest members of the family some extra love with surprise add-ons, in addition to Staypineapple’s standard pet amenities that include complimentary collapsible water bowls and doggy waste bag dispensers to take home.

“We are a company of pet owners and dog-obsessed team members, so we know how tough it can be to leave your furry family companion behind when traveling,” says Dina Belon, Chief Operating Officer at Staypineapple. “Our hope has always been that Staypineapple guests feel at home when staying at one of our hotels, and we believe that pets should feel just as comfortable as the humans.”

Staypineapple is proudly a self-proclaimed “dog-obsessed” hotel group, boasting the most flexible and accommodating pet policies of any hotel throughout North America. Where other hotel brands charge upwards of $75 per night for pet fees and require guests to take pets with them while away from the hotel, Staypineapple only charges $25 per night (waived throughout the month of February) and welcomes guests to leave pets in the room while out on an adventure (using the My Owner is Out Exploring door hanger, of course). The hotel staff can even stay in touch with the owner via text message updates to ensure everything is well back at “home.”

Those interested in booking the Pineapple Pup Plus One package for February stays can visit the Pup Plus One website, call the Staypineapple reservations department at (866) 866-7977 or enter promo code PUP when searching availability at Staypineapple.com.
